

Is not Christ as good as his word? Yes, he faltered, quite. And, when he had said these words he fell asleep.”*

I cannot but add, that any member of the learned and scientific societies to which Dr. Turner belonged, is doing himself a wrong if he do not read and deeply ponder the Sermon which has furnished these extracts.

In a word; suffer one to entreat you, who puts forth no claim but that of the sincerest regard, and the warmest desire for your enjoying happiness of the most exalted kind and in the most perfect degree. Suffer him to entreat, that you would effectually resolve to yield to religion its rightful place in your minds and your hearts: that you would give the just proportion of your studies to the facts and evidences of Christianity, its doctrines and duties, its promises, its invitations, and its faithful warnings.

“GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST; ON EARTH, PEACE; AMONG MEN, GOOD WILL!”

* The Philosopher entering as a Child, into the Kingdom of God: a Sermon preached at the Parish Church of St. Bride, Feb. 27, 1837; on the Death of Edward Turner, M. D., F. R. S. &c. by the Rev. Thomas Dale, M. A. Pp. 24, 28, 29.