

Hampton Court, and in Chelsea College, which when wet present excellent sections of the enclosed shells.

LIGN. 107. AMMONITES FROM THE CRETACEOUS FORMATION.

Fig. 1.—AMMONITES VARIANS. Chalk-marl, Hamsey.

2.—AMMONITES DUFRENOYI.

2^a.—Shows the keel and septum of the same.

3.—AMMONITES LAUTUS. Galt, Folkstone.

3^a.—Keel and septum of the same.

AMMONITIDÆ. — The AMMONITES, or Cornua Ammonis, (so called from a supposed resemblance to the horns engraven on the heads of Jupiter Ammon,)