

engaged in building a vessel on the Oak Islands in the Willamette; where I promised to visit them on my way up the river.

I found them in difficulty with Dr. M'Laughlin, who had refused to furnish them with any more supplies, in consequence, as he stated, of their having obtained those already given them under false pretences.

INDIAN MODE OF ROCKING CRADLE.