

“There exists nothing but nothing; nothing but the Eternal.

“Every thing in the world is endowed with life; the world itself is alive, and continues only, maintains itself by virtue of its life.

“Man is God wholly manifested. God has become man, zero has become + —. Man is the whole of arithmetic, compacted, however, out of all numbers; he can, therefore, produce numbers out of himself.

“Animals are men who never imagine. They are beings who never attain to consciousness concerning themselves. They are single accounts; man is the whole of mathematics.

“Arithmetic is the truly absolute or divine science. Theology is arithmetic personified.

“For God to become real, he must appear under the form of the sphere. There is no other form for God. God manifesting is an infinite sphere.

“God is a rotating globe; the world is God rotating.

“The whole universe is material, is nothing but matter; for it is the primary act repeating itself eternally in the centre. The universe is a rotating globe of matter.

“There is no dead matter; it is alive through its being, through the Eternal that is in it. Matter has no existence in itself, but it is the Eternal only that exists in it. Every thing is God that is there, and without God there is absolutely nothing.

“Every thing that is is material. Now, however, there is nothing that is not; consequently there is every where nothing immaterial.

“Fire is the totality of ether, is God manifested in his totality.

“Every thing that is has originated out of fire; every thing is only cooled, rigidified fire.

“God being in himself is gravity; acting, self-emergent light; both together, or returning into himself, heat.

“God only is monocentral. The world is the bicentral God, God the monocentral world, which is the same with the monas and dyas. Self-consciousness is a living ellipse.

“God is a threefold trinity; at first the eternal, then the ethereal, and finally the terrestrial, where it is completely divided.
