

Croft . . . . .	Enclosed field.
Dale . . . . .	Valley.
Dike . . . . .	Ditch—also Wall or Mound.
Foss—Force . . . . .	Waterfall
Griff . . . . .	Narrow rugged valley.
Grip . . . . .	Drain or narrow channel.
Holm . . . . .	Island in a marshy district.
Hough ( pron. Hauf)	Detached hill=Barf.
How . . . . .	Small round hill.
Holl . . . . .	Deep or narrow valley.
Keld . . . . .	Spring.
Kirk . . . . .	Church.
Knoll . . . . .	Hill-top.
Ling . . . . .	Heath—the plant. (This word, heath, not used.)
Mar . . . . .	Mere or lake.
Marish . . . . .	Marsh.
Moor . . . . .	A hill. (In other districts it is applied to flat peaty grounds.)
Nab . . . . .	End of a hill.
Ness . . . . .	Prominent part of the coast, or conspicuous point of a hill.
Plugh ( pron. Pluf.)	Plough.
Peak . . . . .	Summit of a sea-cliff.
Roak—Reek . . . . .	Smoke.
Scrogs . . . . .	Shrubs.
Scar . . . . .	Very rarely used for a perpendicular cliff; less rarely for a flat rocky shore below a cliff.
Swang . . . . .	Marsh
Strand . . . . .	Sea-coast.
Syke . . . . .	Slow or boggy brook.
Thwaite . . . . .	Single house or small hamlet.
Thorp . . . . .	Farm-house or small hamlet.
Wath . . . . .	A ford (Latin Vadum).
Warp . . . . .	Sediment from rivers.
Well . . . . .	A spring.
Wyke . . . . .	Hollow of the sea-coast; small bay.
Whin . . . . .	Furze or Gorse ( Ulex Europæus ); also a hard stone.
Woold . . . . .	Wold, or open hilly surface.
Yak . . . . .	Oak.

The words Down, Fell, Fen, and Heath, so common elsewhere, are not used in this district.

Among the descriptive words used in the west which scarcely occur in the east, we may enumerate—

Man . . . . .	A conspicuous heap of stones.
Fell . . . . .	High ground.