

CONTENTS.

xiii

Successive Life Periods—scale of such periods in Yorkshire....	Page 169, 170
Their history sketched :—
Proichthyan and Palichthyan Periods	171
Pterichthyan Period	172-174
Megalichthyan Period	174-177
Palæoniscian Period	177
Palæosaurian and Teleosaurian Periods	178, 179
Megalosaurian Period.....	180, 181
Mosasaurian Period	181
Palæotherian Period	182
Pre-glacial Period	183
Glacial Period.....	184
Post-glacial Period.....	185
Fauna of Yorkshire.—Animals of Kirkdale Cave—of Bielbecks—of the alluvial deposits and subterranean forests	185-187
Origin of the Fauna and Flora of Yorkshire.—Migration, how possible —with reference to submersion and elevation of land.—Traces of a Scandinavian Flora.—Germanic Flora and Fauna.—Conjecture re- garding the first advent of Man.....	188-192

CHAPTER VIII.

THE BRIGANTES.

Preparation of the earth for the residence of Man.—The Britons— application of the term—contrasted by Strabo with the Celts—the Κέλτοι of Herodotus	192, 193
Three races of men in Britain. Cassiterides—Electrides. The Bri- gantes.—Voyage of Pytheas	194
The Roman conquest—Ostorius Scapula—Caractacus—Cartismandua —Venutius—Petilius Cerealis—Agricola—the Genunii	194-198
The Brigantian territory and people.....	198, 199
The Language—names of rivers, mountains, persons and tribes ..	199-201
The Houses—compared with those of Gaul—pit foundations—Vil- lages near Wapley and Skipwith—Cyttiau on Ingleborough ..	202-204
The Tumuli—burial of the body—cremation and enclosure of ashes in urns.—Opening of tumuli on Acklam Wold,—near Driffild,—near Arras and Weighton—Graves of the Charioteers—the Cairn of Ob- trush Roque.....	204-211
The Raths of Lofthouse—Kildale—Kippax—Aldrow—Cropton— Duggleby—Bishop Burton—Barwick	212, 213
The Camps—Hutton Ambo—Langton—Thorntonhorpe	213, 214
The Dikes and Oppida	214-216