

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

1807-1827 : TO ÆT. 20.

Birthplace. — Influence of his Mother. — Early Love of Natural History. — Boyish Occupations. — Domestic Education. — First School. — Vacations. — Commercial Life renounced. — College of Lausanne. — Choice of Profession. — Medical School of Zurich. — Life and Studies there. — University of Heidelberg. — Studies interrupted by Illness. — Return to Switzerland. — Occupations during Convalescence 1

CHAPTER II.

1827-1828 : ÆT. 20-21.

Arrival in Munich. — Lectures. — Relations with the Professors. — Schelling, Martius, Oken, Döllinger. — Relations with Fellow-Students. — The Little Academy. — Plans for Traveling. — Advice from his Parents. — Vacation Journey. — Tri-Centennial Dürer Festival at Nuremberg 46

CHAPTER III.

1828-1829 : ÆT. 21-22.

First Important Work in Natural History. — Spix's Brazilian Fishes. — Second Vacation Trip. — Sketch