

advantage of working out the structure of the wonderfully perfect Belgium specimens, believes that the animal moved on its hind legs, which are disproportionately longer than

Fig. 421.—Cretaceous Deinosaur (Iguanodon). From the skeleton as restored and erected by MM. de Paw and Dollo in the Brussels Museum.